

REGISTERING YOUR NEWBORN BABY IN SPAIN

By law you must register your baby within thirty days of the birth date. The hospital where you have your baby will provide the information necessary.

If you do not present the documents in time, the registration could take months as a report will be opened and you will have to accredit the reasons for not registering within the time specified.

Below is the government link, relating to the registration of your new baby.

http://www.mjusticia.gob.es/cs/Satellite/en/1200666550200/Tramite_C/1214483957117/Detalle.html?param1=1

Obtaining a birth certificate.

http://www.mjusticia.gob.es/cs/Satellite/en/1200666550200/Tramite_C/1214483951490/Detalle.html

The link below will give you the information on documents which you will have to present at your nearest 'Registro Civil' to obtain a certificate.

Link: Application in person

The link below will give you directions on how to find the registry which pertains to you. Related information.

Link: Civil Registers

Ref: 00/0042

Date: 26/01/14

www.citizensadvice.org.es

You can download the application form by clicking on the link below:
Associated documents.

You can also try to order the birth certificate online.
LINK to online office Ministry.

Birth Certificate Application Form

Link HERE.

As of October 15th 2015 you can also register your newborn electronically, through the Hospital Administration, within 72 hours of the birth.

Myra Azzopardi Swainson
20/11/13

Updated 07/01/2015, 23/10/2015 and 16/04/2017

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/citizensinspain/>

Ref: 00/0042

Date: 26/01/14

www.citizensadvice.org.es

